

DINNER MEETING, Monday, April 17, 2017

LOCATION: The Roosevelt House Public Policy Institute at Hunter College
47-49 E. 65th Street (between Park and Madison Avenues), Manhattan

TIME: 5:30 Reception
6:30 Dinner
7:30 Program

COST: $65.00 per person (buffet)
$70.00 per non-member (unless guest of member)

MORE ABOUT OUR SPEAKER:

Dr. Charles B. Strozier is a historian and psychoanalyst who lives and works in New York City. Strozier earned his PhD at the University of Chicago and began teaching in Springfield, Illinois. In addition to his two Lincoln related books, he is author of Until the Fires Stopped Burning: 9/11 and New York City in the Words and Experiences of Survivors and Witnesses, amongst other works, a number of which deal with fundamentalism.

PLEASE RESERVE EARLY*

Please reserve: _____ place(s) at the April 17, 2017 Lincoln Group of New York Dinner

Enclosed is $ _____ ($65.00 per member - $70.00 non-member)

Name(s): _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____ Email _____

Make check payable to The Lincoln Group of New York and mail to:

Robert G. Langford, Treasurer
The Lincoln Group of New York
49 Skyline Drive
Morristown, NJ 07960

* Please reserve by April 11 if at all possible or we may not be able to accommodate you. Cancellations can be accepted up to that date. After that, refunds may not be possible.

To reserve, print this form and mail with payment to the above.